

Name _____
Hour _____

English 11
American Women/Independent Story Assignment

Title:
Author:

Protagonist's name:
Describe him/her:

What is the main conflict in the story?

Describe the setting (add all pertinent details—place, time, atmosphere, etc.)

Who are the important secondary characters? Describe two.

Describe how the protagonist (and/or secondary characters) fulfill or challenge stereotypical sex roles (men or women). Do this for two characters.

Character name	Explanation

--	--

A dynamic character is one who learns something. The protagonist in most stories usually learns something or grows in some way. What does your protagonist learn?

Is this lesson or truth important for all people to know? Explain.

What was the best part of this story? Why?

What was the part of the story you liked least? Explain.

Who do you think would or should read this story (name a person you know) and explain why?