American Women
Unit Test

In a group of two or three, divide the reading of the handout, "Women's Roles in the Late 19th Century." Discuss this reading in your group. Then summarize the main points of each category in the article. Finally, compare history with today. Alternate the writing task so that each one shares equally.

	Summary from the article	How it is today. . .
Keeping the home
Health and childbearing
Fashion

Education
Social and political Consumers

Finally, think over everything you have seen and read in this unit. What do you think has been the most important change or event for women over the years? What are you most glad about for yourselves, for your present and for your future. Be specific.
